On 22 and 23 May, the Nachrichten Kaserne was occupied by a rear detail of about 50 soldiers. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.
From 15 to 23 May, the Seeckt Kaserne was occupied only by a rear detail of about 50 soldiers. Sentries seen wore black-bordered black epaulets with engineer insignia.
From 13 to 23 May, the Flak Kaserne was occupied by an estimated 600 to 700 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. Intensive training activity, including instruction on six 85-mm AA guns, was observed.
On 16 May, the Encke Kaserne, Magdeburg, was occupied to capacity. On either side of the locked northern gate, the wall was being heightened by a board fence, about 10 meters long and 1 to 1.2 meters high, presumably to prevent observation from the buildings opposite the installation. Sedan occupied by a one-star general and followed by sedan occupied by two air force officers, left the installation.
On 18 May, singing was heard from the Hindenburg Kaserne. Most of the windows of the barracks buildings were open. Three buses were in the northeast corner of the installation. Five radio masts, about 8 meters high, were seen for the first time on the east side of the installation. Tank trucks  were seen leaving the installation and, later, were
